DR. W. DOUGLAS HUDGINS

Dr. Hudgins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Jackson, will be the inspirational speaker each evening at the Mississippi Baptist Assembly, at Camp Garwayna, the week of July 16-20.

Dr. Hudgins is one of our finest preachers, and has many calls each year for special messages in many states. We are glad that our own people will have this opportunity to hear him at the Assembly.

Fort Worth Invites 1953 Convention

FORT WORTH, Tex. —(BP)— Baptists in this city have officially invited the Southern Baptist Convention to meet with them in 1953. The invitation came from the Tarrant County Baptist Association and was announced by J. Woodrow Fuller, superintendent of missions. Mr. Homer Covey, president of the Fort Worth Food Markets, is chairman of the committee issuing the invitation in behalf of the association.

The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce has assured a minimum of 1,200 hotel rooms. The Dallas Baptist Pastor's Conference has also voted to join.

McGrath's Attack On Separation Concept Held Betrayal Of Office

J. Howard McGrath, United States Attorney General, betrayed his trust as a public servant when he attacked the basic American principle of separation of church and state at a recent conference of the National Catholic Educational Association in Cleveland. This was the conclusion reached by The Toledo Blade, The Christian Century, the Board of Deacons of the First Congregational Church, Avon Lake, O., and others who analyzed the startling contents of McGrath's address at the conference. Another speaker before the Roman Catholic group was Congressman Eugene J. McCarthy (D., Minn.), who also attacked the separation concept. Repudiating the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the McCollum case, McGrath declared that the "wall

Dawson Asks Support Liquor Control Bill

WASHINGTON, D. C. —(BP)— A telegram sent out this week by Dr. J. M. Dawson called for support of a bill before Congress to empower the Secretary of Defense to make regulations governing the sale of liquor in military establishments. The telegram is as follows:

"The House has adopted an amendment to the Universal Training and Service Bill S1 as follows: 'An amendment offered by Cole of New York as a substitute for that offered by Mr. Bryson, page 54, adds new section as follows: The Secretary of Defense is authorized to make such regulations governing the sale, consumption, possession of, or traffic in beer, wine or other intoxicating liquors, to or by members of the armed forces or the National Security Training Corps, at or near any camp station, post, or other place primarily occupied by members of the armed forces or National Security Training Corps. Any person, corporation, partnership, or association violating the regulations authorized hereunder shall, unless otherwise punishable under the uniform code of military justice, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment for not more than 12 months, or both.' Conferees of the House will be Carl Vinson, Overton Brooks, Paul J. Kilday, Carl T. Durham, Dewey Short, Leslie C. Arends, and W. Sterling Cole. Conferees of the Senate will be chosen from among the following: Richard B. Russell, Harry Flood Byrd, Lyndon B. Johnson, Estes Kefauver, Styles Bridges, Leverett Saltonstall, and Wayne Morse. Glad we have this good news. Please wire or phone these men urging them to accept the Cole Amendment to S1 regarding alcoholic beverages to the Universal Training and Service Bill."

of separation between church and state" need not be kept "high and impregnable," but that, on the contrary, "... the state and the church must not have any fence between them."

Twisting the Law

McGrath's speech, The Toledo Blade declared, "has shown . . . how our officials could twist our laws about to suit their religious bias if that wall is ever broken." "What has caused religious strife in many countries," the newspaper maintained, "has not been so much differences in creed but the efforts of one church, any church, to use the power and the prestige and the wealth of government to propagate itself at the expense of others. . . ."

Baptist Can Now Send Relief Supplies To Korea

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP PASSES 84 MILLION MARK

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(RNS)—American church membership has passed the 84 million mark, according to the 1951 Southern Baptist Handbook, released here.

Porter Routh, editor of the Handbook, reported that the nation's churches showed a gain in membership last year of 2,503,077. This represents a 3.1 per cent increase for the second successive year, and brings the church membership to 56 per cent of the total United States population.

Fifty Protestant groups with a membership of more than 50,000 each reported an increase in members of 1,355,279.

An increase in members of 1,355,279. The Roman Catholic Church reported a gain of 947,798 over the previous year.

Top membership figures among Protestant denominations were again those of the Methodist Church, with 8,935,647, and the Southern Baptist Convention, with 7,079,889.

According to the Southern Baptist tabulation there was an increase of 2,097 congregations in 1950 over 1949 and during the same time Sunday school enrollment increased 925,522.

By DR. R. PAUL CAUDILL, Chairman

Baptist World Alliance Relief Committee

Baptists have not engaged in an extensive relief effort in behalf of Korea because the military picture up until now has made it impossible for private relief agencies to operate in Korea. In fact, all relief efforts for Korea have had to be channeled through the military, with distribution of supplies being made by the United Nations Command.

There are open now, however, channels through which Baptists can assist in the relief of Korea.

(1) American Relief for Korea (ARK) with warehouses in Maspeth, New York, and Oakland, California, is prepared to process relief supplies for shipment to Korea through the military channels. Gifts of clothing should be sent prepaid along with an offering to help defray the cost of processing the goods to:

The ARK, 5215 Flushing Avenue, Maspeth, Long Island, New York; or, The ARK, 10901 Russett St., Oakland, Calif.

Among the clothing needed desperately are the following items: Sweaters, coats, bathrobes, trousers, overalls, women's dresses and skirts, socks and stockings, blankets and bedding, caps and gloves, mittens and mufflers, and outer clothing, underwear, and shoes of all kinds and in all sizes

Dr. F. Townsley Lord Says British Baptists Give More Per Capita Than Southern Baptists

Dr. and Mrs. Lord posed with these mission volunteers at the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, April 12, following his Missionary Day address. AM had responded to an invitation to make a dedication for the first time to the mission call, "Wherever the Lord shall lead, and if the way is opened."

While complimenting the work of Southern Baptists whose offerings for all causes are astronomical, Dr. Lord reminded his audience that the British Baptists give more per capita than Southern Baptists. Offerings for missions by British Baptist churches have doubled in the past ten years.

Yeager Replaces Lord Evangelism, Training To Be Featured On Closing SBC Program

Shown above is Professor Orville Yeager who joined the Mississippi College faculty this week as Professor of History.

CLINTON, June 6—Replacing Dr. F. A. Lord, Professor of History in Mississippi College, who has been called into service, will be Professor Orville Yeager of Blanchard, Okla., who will be here for the summer term beginning June 11. Already doing efficient work as Professor of History is Dr. Robert H. Spiro, who has his Ph.D. degree from Edinburgh, Scotland. The department of History requires two full time men.

Professor Yeager is a B. A. graduate, Magna cum Laude, from Syracuse University and has completed requirements for the Ph.D. at the University of Oklahoma except his thesis. He is married and has two sons. Mrs. Yeager is a graduate of the Music Department of DePauw University and has had exten-

NASHVILLE, Tenn. —(BP)— The closing service of the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in San Francisco, June 20-24, will feature two of the most important matters facing Baptists, (1) training of church members, and (2) evangelism. Fifteen thousand are expected to attend, most of them from California. State leaders are organizing to secure representation from all of the state's churches. The meeting will be under the joint direction of Dr. J. E. Lambdin, Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. C. E. Matthews, Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Lambdin will direct the Training Union Hour emphasizing the Southern Baptist program of church member training.

The Evangelistic Hour will follow the Training Union Hour. Dr. W. A. Criswell will be the preacher and the hour will be directed by Dr. C. E. Matthews, superintendent of evangelism of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The subject of his sermon is "Christ and This Crucial Hour."

REPORTING THE CRUSADE

By CHESTER L. QUARLES
Executive Secretary

The Simultaneous Evangelistic Crusade in Mississippi was a great success. More people were won to Christ and brought into the churches in that period of time than ever before in such a similar period. The preparation in the associations and the churches was superb in most places. We are continuing to receive reports from churches and associations and are anxious to receive all of them. This is not the case as yet.

The convention will meet in the Will Rogers Coliseum that seats 11,000 and in the Will Rogers Auditorium, that seats 3,000, both to be furnished rent-free to the Convention by the Baptists of the Tarrant County Baptist Association.

Southern Baptists have met twice before in Fort Worth. First in 1890, when Jonathan Haralson of Alabama was president, and again in 1934, when M. E. Dodd of Louisiana was president.

The invitation will be considered at the San Francisco meeting of the Convention, June 20-24, this year.

McGRATH'S ATTACK ON

Christian Century observed: "There may be governmental posts which he could fill acceptably. But his post as attorney general of the United States, the President's chief law officer and advisor, is not one of them. Not while he denies that the principle of separation of church and state is embedded in the federal Constitution and explicitly reaffirmed in most state constitutions. Not while he shouts 'bigot' at every citizen who supports that principle. For the nation's attorney general to take any such position is intolerable. . . ."

The Avon Lake Congregational Church group adopted a resolution declaring that McGrath had used his office "to give undue weight and influence to an opinion on church-state relations which reflects the official position of a religious group in this country," seriously jeopardizing "the integrity, the honor and the prestige of your high office!"

(Unlike McGrath, it should be noted, the late Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy put sectarian considerations aside when he voted with the 8-1 majority in the McCollum decision.)

Meanwhile, at a communion breakfast of longshoremen in New York City, George A. Timone announced that the Board of Education—of which he is a member—would call upon McGrath to file a brief with the United States Supreme Court supporting Bible reading as practiced in New Jersey public schools. The Board, he added, was also requesting that the New York City Corporation Counsel move for leave to file a brief as a friend of the court.

A Grateful Son

Sunday, June 17 is Father's Day. Sour-souled cynic may question the wisdom of celebrating Father's Day or of giving a present to dear old dad. Our reply would be in the words of a sign which we recently saw: "Father gives every day, certainly we should give to him on one day."

Or as some writer has put it:

"Only a dad, but he gives his all,
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing with courage stern and grim
The deeds that his father did for him
This is the line for him I pen—
Only a dad, but the best of men."

Father may not be wearing a new suit; his pants may be a little loose as well as shiny; his step may not have the spring in it like the son or daughter, but remember he is your father.

For all these years he has been seeing that you had the best he could provide in clothes, shelter and food. Never once has he failed you. He thinks that you are the greatest boy (or girl) in the world.

How we wish our own father were living. How we would appreciate the opportunity of telling him how much we appreciate the privilege of having him for a father. We recall the days when we were younger when we thought dad was an old kill joy, out-of-date and lacking in understanding.

How we wish we could recall those days and those foolish thoughts. How right he was and how wrong we were. BUT the sad fact is that Dad has gone on to glory now and we have no way of letting him know how much we do appreciate him and what he did for us. Were he living today we would love to thank him for many things such as:

PICKING A GOOD MOTHER.
Had he been able to search the world he could have done no better.

PROVIDING A CHRISTIAN HOME. It is hard enough in these days for young people to live Christian lives and those who do not have inspiration of a Christian home are severely handicapped. There were finer homes, on higher hills with more expensive furnishings and brighter lights but none where there was more love and companionship and down to earth living.

FOR TEACHING ME SOME OF THE THINGS THAT HAVE HELPED ME TO BE A GENTLEMAN. Parental respect, kindness for the old and less fortunate, courtesy to all, honesty, truthfulness, to make good on every promise even if it hurt, the dignity of work and the fact that cheap deeds get cheap results.

And so, dear Dad, I wish you could read as I write, "You endowed me with much more than I can ever repay. I only wish you were here on earth so I could send a present to express to you the love of a grateful son."

It Will Pay To Follow Those Baptist Boys

Day by day more Baptist boys (and some girls) of Mississippi are going into the military service. Regardless of rank, or station or situation, they sometimes get homesick. They think of home whether it be humble or glittering, whether it be on Main street or far back in the country. Any news and in any form is welcomed.

Next to letters from the home folks, the Baptist Record will help to keep them in touch with their church and denominational affairs. It is one of the very best ways to tie them to the old home church.

Churches should send those boys the Baptist Record. Let them know that the church has not forgotten them, and when they come back they will not forget the church.

Churches having the EVERY FAMILY plan may add the name of any member who is in the armed service to their list. There is no extra charge for overseas addresses.

Answer Two Questions

We notice that some candidates for governor are advocating the legalization of liquor in Mississippi. If any of these candidates can offer a satisfactory answer to the two questions below we will be glad to have those answers:

1. If the whiskey crowd does not now obey the present liquor laws how do they expect them to obey other liquor laws?

We admit that the liquor laws are poorly enforced. There are several reasons for this. Some of them are: crooked, graft-taking officials; the complacency of the average citizen who simply growls about non-law enforcement; our laws which seem to favor the bootlegger; the failure of the legislature to enact tighter enforcement laws; and the fact that many judges often give sentences far too light. How often do we read in the paper where so and so who was convicted of selling whiskey or making whiskey was fined a few dollars and a suspended sentence.

2. If liquor is legalized it will be easier to get. Will the advocates of legal liquor explain how people will use less liquor if it is easier to get than they will if it is hard to get?

Our Readers Write

Dear Dr. Goodrich:

That was certainly a nice write up you had on the first page of The Baptist Record for this week in regard to the recent Revival at Princeton University. It may be of interest to you to know further that our son, Sherwood, was one of the vice-presidents of that first student organization there last year. Mrs. Riser and I are exceedingly proud of that fact. He was a vice-president also for the first semester of this year. Our Missionary Society and a few of our members made a special contribution to the work at Princeton.

IT IS TIME TO DO SOMETHING

Thank God for you and your paper for contending constantly for the faith once delivered to the saints. I am particularly pleased with the way you have fought the reappointment of a Vatican Envoy.

This is the time for action. I have written the Baptist President of the United States saying "You have too much sense, too much patriotism, too much love for fundamental Baptist democracy to appoint another envoy."

I am reminding him that Rome never changes. Our Baptist hero-pioneers went to the stake and died in order that people could be Romanists or Protestants. Catholics have never granted anybody that privilege except under compulsion. Every reader should write his senator, representative, and the president NOW or it will be everlastingly too late.

I rejoice in your glorious Bible-loving and freedom-loving company and the battle you are fighting.

Ellisville Baptists Appeal For Funds

Ellisville Baptists are appealing to the churches of Mississippi for aid in rebuilding their church plant which was completely destroyed by fire on May 24.

Not only does the church minister to the people of Ellisville but to many of the students of Jones County Junior College.

Ellisville Baptists say that a smaller plant would meet all the needs of the local members but because of their desire to minister to the students a larger plant is necessary. This will increase the building cost at least 25 per cent.

In order to be ready for the students at the beginning of the fall term which begins in September, funds must be raised quickly.

A letter is being sent to every pastor and church treasurer in Mississippi appealing for building aid. The letter follows:

Dear Fellow Baptists:

Tuesday, May 22, I received a call to return to the Chaplaincy of the United States Air Force. I notified the deacons that night, and on the following Thursday night our church burned. The loss was total, and will exceed $125,000. We had insurance to cover about 20 per cent of the loss. Our pulpit chair was salvaged. Within three weeks we would have been in the new $40,000.00 addition. With this new addition our building would have been adequate for our own needs and for the several hundred college students we minister to each year. Ministering to the students of Jones Junior College is one of our primary missions.

Our people are responding in a fine and sacrificial spirit. They had already given just about all they could afford to build the new addition, but now they are giving more. Four little children from one of our fine families came in a few days after the fire, each with a paper bag containing fifty-eight silver dollars. The little three year old boy said, "Build us a church." Several are giving a second tithe. These and other incidents depict a noble Christian spirit, but it will take years of such sacrifice for these people to even start a building adequate for their needs and the college students. To do this tremendous task we will need the help of other Baptist people throughout the state.

Every moment of my time until my reporting date, June 22, is being used to help these good people get started on a new building. College opens in September, and we want to at least have something started by the time the students arrive.

We are appealing to all the Baptist Churches of Mississippi for help. Won't you please have a special prayer for us, bring this to the attention of your church and send a contribution, whether great or small, to Mr. H. A. Dunahoo, Chairman of our Finance Committee?

For your consideration of this urgent appeal we will be most humbly grateful.

Your friend in Christ,

WILLIAM L. CLARK, Pastor.

Dear Friends:

No church could have received a more tragic blow than has the Ellisville Baptist Church. The membership is responding magnificently, despite difficulties. The problem is more acute because of the student situation. We feel that their "Macedonian Call" is justified. Many fellow Christians will want to respond in a financial way.

Yours in Christian Service,
CHESTER L. QUARLES,
Executive Secretary.

(Editor's Note: This is a worthy appeal and we hope that there will be a generous response.)

THE ORIENT

China: "Contrary to a statement in a recent issue of Time magazine, all Protestant mission boards have not urged all their missionaries to leave China," Dr. M. Theron Rankin, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, told the Board in its regular monthly meeting, May 10.

"The Board has urged our missionaries to exercise their own judgment in making their own decisions. The Board has repeatedly assured the missionaries that unqualified support would be given any decision to remain or to leave.

"The Board has assumed that the missionaries would remain in China as long as they judged their presence helpful. The time has now come when the missionaries themselves, in light of actual experience under the communists, have concluded that their presence is a hindrance and a source of vital danger to Chinese Christians."

Southern Baptists have only four missionaries left in China. They are Ruth Everley Hayes, Wuchow, Ruth Pettigrew, Kweiyang, Addie Estelle Cox, Shanton; and Pearl Johnson, Tsingtao.

Japan: A report from the president of the Japan Baptist Convention says: "In 1947 there were 15 churches, 14 pastors, and less than 1,000 Baptist church members in Japan. Today there are 37 churches, 76 mission points, 40 pastors, and more than 4,200 church members.

Island of the Sea: Missionaries who have found it necessary to leave China are being re-located. Rev. and Mrs. Oz Quick, Miss Mary Demarest, and Miss Irene Jeffers are now in Formosa. Wonderful reports come of the opportunities for service there. Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson are waiting for visas to go to the Philippines where they will join the work of the Philippine Mission. Rev. and Mrs. Deaver Lawton and Miss Margie Shumate are helping to strengthen the Siam Mission. Miss Lora Clements has made a visit to the capital city of the Malay Federation and reports great opportunities there. A building has been purchased in Singapore for the work of the church. At least half of the money is being raised by the church itself.

Baker James Cauthen: "It would be easy to conclude that conditions are too unstable and the risks are too great to venture very far. But we have our Master's orders embracing the whole wide world. With the command of our Lord ringing in our hearts and the challenge of his cross before our eyes, we join the sailors of Bremen and say, 'We don't have to live, but we must put out to sea.'"

EUROPE

Dr. George W. Sadler, secretary for Africa, Europe, and the Near East, will visit mission fields this summer. He will lay the cornerstone for a building at Spurgeon's College in London on June 28. The honor comes because Southern Baptists contributed $20,000 toward the restoration of the cloisters at the school.

The Foreign Mission Board is giving a lift to Baptist work in a number of places in Europe in addition to the established Southern Baptist work there.

In cooperation with the American Baptist Convention, the Board has recently helped Norwegian Baptists purchase a boat which will be used in the fjords and islands of Northern Norway where there are no churches or chapels and where many people gather for worship. Dr. Sadler says, "Southern Baptists are particularly interested in the Baptists of Norway. Dr. A. T. Ohn, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, and Dr. Josef Nordenhaug, president, European Theological Seminary, Ruschlikon-Zurich, Switzerland, and editor of The Commission, have come from Norway."

Other recent appropriations include $2,000 for construction of chapels in Austria and $9,000 to purchase property and help construct church buildings in Southern Germany.

LATIN AMERICA

Dr. Everett Gill, Jr., secretary for Latin America, is visiting mission centers in Mexico, Central America, Columbia, and Ecuador.

His first stop after leaving Richmond April 16 was the Baptist Publishing House in El Paso, Texas. There he had conferences with the missionaries serving in this institution which has ministry to 25 Spanish-speaking areas.

He went from El Paso to Chihuahua, Mexico, the center of missionary activity for a wide area. There he visited a beautiful new church building which he says "is a credit to our cause." It is in Chihuahua that Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Pierson, with Miss Katherine Skinner, direct a Student Home for young

Carroll Freeman Goes
To Holly Springs
As Ed. Director

Carroll Freeman, who has just graduated from Mississippi College, has gone to First Church, Holly Springs, to be educational director.

A native of Petal, Mr. Freeman has served as educational director of the Petal Harvey Church this past year on a part-time basis while attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman are both gifted in music. He will have charge of the music program and will direct four graded choirs. He will also have charge of the youth program as well as the regular educational tasks of the church, according to Rev. Howard H. Aultman, pastor.

men and women studying in the state schools.

Then Dr. Gill visited Torreón, the home of a new Baptist seminary for young men and women. He spoke in Spanish to the graduating class of the institution. "Here lies the hope of the future of our work in Mexico," he wrote. A lot, 160x260 feet, has been purchased for the future home of the seminary, and it is hoped that building operations will begin this year.

Dr. Gill spent three days in Guadalajara, Mexico's second city, seeing the work of the Baptist medical clinic operated by Dr. and Mrs. E. Lamar Cole in collaboration with a Mexican physician. "I saw many of Dr. Cole's patients and visited with him on some of his sick calls," Dr. Gill said.

Rev. and Mrs. Orvil Reid supervised a Student Home for young men and Miss Miriam McCullough directs a Student Home for girls in Guadalajara. "These homes in a land where denominational schools are prohibited, are meeting a long-felt need," Dr. Gill reported. "They train young laymen and women in Christian character while they attend the state school, and also prepare young people for the ministry and active Christian service in the churches."

Dr. Gill took a mule trip—21 hours in the saddle to cover 75 miles—to the mountainous state of Guerrero, one of the most backward in Mexico. It is the home of the Benito Juarez School which is supported by Baptists. The only school in the community of Guayameo and a far-reaching mountain area surrounding it, it has an enrollment of about 140 children and young people. "After 400 years, neither the dominant church nor the state has done anything for these people."

LOTTIE MOON OFFERING

The 1950 Lottie Moon Offering totaled $2,110,019.07, according to Everett L. Deane, treasurer of the Foreign Mission Board. This is an increase of $364,336.26 over the 1949 offering of $1,745,682.81.

States contributing more than $100,000 are: Texas, $764,516.23; North Carolina, $180,581.22; Virginia, $160,762.00; South Carolina, $113,962.62; Georgia, $106,973.85.

Books on the 1950 offering were closed May 1. Any additional money received from the 1950 offering will be credited to the 1951 total.

"THE CHURCHES AND SUNDAY schools of the nation have played a major role in counteracting the influences which contribute to juvenile delinquency. They have been valiant in their efforts to eradicate the evil elements and factors in a community life which tempt our young people and encourage youthful lawlessness. They have stood on the side of good government and have opposed it wherever they found it corruption, graft, and incompetence in public office." —John Edgar Hoover, The Sunday School Builder.

Hodge Celebrates 20th Year With 1st Church, Biloxi

June 3 marked the 20th anniversary of Dr. G. C. Hodge as pastor of the First Church, Biloxi.

When he arrived in Biloxi in 1931 he found the church with a $50,000 indebtedness. This building was dedicated debt-free 13 years later.

During the past three years First Church has had a standard kindergarten with a faculty of four and an enrolment of 80.

Outstanding in the church life the past ten years has been the service men's center. Keesler Field soldiers have found fellowship and hospitality as well as a place of worship in First Church. During World War II there were 200 names of service men on the daily prayer calendar.

During the 20 years there have been 2,084 additions to the church, the yearly offerings have increased from $4,080.92

MRS. B. WHITFIELD

Mrs. B. Whitfield, First Baptist Church, Picayune, will direct the Primary conferences at our Mississippi Baptist Assembly, at Camp Garaywa, July 16-20.

Mrs. Whitfield is one of the very finest Primary workers to be found anywhere, with no exceptions. She has done a monumental work for many years in her own church with Primaries, and has been used many times in special conferences, clinics, conventions, etc.

Primary workers over the state will surely not want to miss this great opportunity offered them at our Assembly.

TRAINING

In last week's report you noted almost 1,500 people in 35 associations to receive awards for study of the books that would help them do better work. This was in the month of April. We can do as well in the months remaining in this associational year.

You may not be able to have a formal class, meeting for four or five nights, but awards can be had and the worker helped to do better work, by individual study. Many hundred S. S. Workers get help each year by taking the book or books that relate to their work and doing an individual study of them. We would like to suggest three leaflets to be had by merely sending a postal card to the Sunday School Dept., Box 530, Jackson, Miss. These will suggest a program of training or give some good ideas in that direction. They are: For the Teaching Task Today Develop Workman Unashamed; The Correlated Church Study Course; Sunday School Workers Study Club.

Vacation Bible School reports are coming in every day. Thank you for reporting your school. Keep them coming along, as you have the schools, for you will want to tell of your good work with your boys and girls.

Dubose Celebrates 2nd Anniversary At County Line

REV. J. W. DUBOSE

Rev. J. W. Dubose celebrated his second anniversary as pastor of the County Line Church, Jones County, on June 7.

During these two years the church has gone to full time; four young men have surrendered to the ministry; seven young people have dedicated their lives to full-time Christian work; and a pastorate has been built.

This church will have home-coming Sunday, June 17. Rev. Joe D. Boutwell of the New Orleans Seminary will bring the morning message. Rev. J. H. Cothen, Sr., of Hattiesburg will give the history of the church. Lunch will be served.

ORGANIZE THAT BROTHERHOOD NOW

Any time of the year is a good time to organize the men of a church to work to build a greater church, but the Springtime brings its wonderful challenge to a lively renewal of all that God's people are endeavoring to do in and through their churches.

The spring and summer months offer unlimited opportunities for the development of a more comprehensive program of work within our churches, and also unlimited opportunities for the extension of our church program into every area of the church field.

All of a church's opportunities for service are intensified at this time of the year when people can go outdoors. There are unlimited opportunities for cottage prayer-meetings, for Mission revivals, for revivals in weak churches and in schoolhouses, for out-door revivals; for personal visitation both for soul-winning and for building up the organizations of our churches; for outings of men and boys, fish-fries, encampments, etc.

The purpose of the church Brotherhood is to build a better church program by putting the consecrated men of the church to work at God-given tasks of the church.

Organize that Brotherhood now!

CAN YOU SUBSCRIBE TO THE FOLLOWING?

1. Loyalty to Christ to Christ, to the church, and to the pastor as leader of all its work.
2. Co-operation with every agency and organization of the church and denomination.
3. Constant emphasis upon the necessity of personal consecration for worthy Christian stewardship of home, self, substance, and service.
4. A greater emphasis upon individual and group effort in evangelism.

for infants, boys and girls, men and women.

American Relief for Korea was recently formed by members of the American Council of Voluntary Agencies for Foreign Services, in cooperation with the Department of State, with Mr. Douglas Fairbanks as the National Chairman. The headquarters of the organization is at 133 East 39th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

American Baptist Relief is not yet actively affiliated with the American Relief for Korea, as a participating agency, but the chairman of the Relief Committee met members of ARK in New York City on April 26 for the purpose of getting information concerning the over-all character of ARK and the opportunity it would afford Baptists for furthering their relief in Korea. American Relief in Korea (ARK) is an organization similar to American Council of Relief Agencies Licensed for Operation in Germany (CRALOG) through which American Baptists have been operating in the occupied zone for three years.

(2) Baptists can purchase CARE packages, though these, likewise, must be transported and distributed by the military.

(3) Southern Baptist Missionary John Abernathy is now back in Korea and is prepared to minister in a limited way

5. Increased circulation of our denominational papers and publications.

6. A wider and deeper study of the missionary, educational, and benevolent work of Southern Baptists in the state, homeland, and the world.

7. An aggressive effort by men to reach, win and develop boys through Christian companionship and guidance.

8. Tithes and offerings brought regularly into the church; and increased offerings in emergencies.

9. Progressive advance in church budgets both for local needs and denominational causes in order that the gospel may be proclaimed to the uttermost part of the earth.

10. An increasing proportion of church receipts distributed through the Co-operative program for denominational causes.

11. Liberal support and patronage of denominational institutions.

12. A continuing effort through the Brotherhood to promote Christian fellowship and to enlist, organize and utilize all the men of all churches in active Christian service.

The above is an outline of the policy of the Brotherhood Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

We subscribe to it heartily!

to those in need through funds supplied by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Missionary Abernathy plans soon to make a survey of the needs with a view to guidance in subsequent ministries.

(4) Cash offerings may be sent to the Relief Committee of the Baptist World Alliance through your denominational headquarters, or to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention; for the continuing ministry of the Relief Committee in Korea.

Dr. Pyun Yung Tai, Minister of the Republic of Korea, states that South Korea has 10,000,000 inhabitants with an estimated 5,000,000 refugees from North Korea who are in a state of "utter misery." Let us pray that Baptists may not fail in their effort to help relieve this tragic area of need.

Sunday School Lesson

By DR. L. BRACEY CAMPBELL.
June 17.

THE KING, HIS SUBJECTS, THEIR QUALIFICATIONS AND COMMISSION.
Scripture Lesson Text: Acts 1:1-8.

I. THE KING

"I have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion" —Psalm 2:6.

The prophecy spoken through Father David has now been partly, at least, fulfilled. The King has come, has done His earthly personal work, is now about to go back to heaven to be seated in regal state in the seat of royal authority upon the Father's own right hand. The King has been winning through a long campaign His right, by the strenuous greatness of things done, to ascend the throne of the universe and sway the scepter of His divine authority over all the reaches of creation.

II. HIS SUBJECTS

Here we have a group of them, we may say, the chosen group of them. This group of His own has been called, each separate one of them, to be with Him and to learn from Him how to do the work of the Kingdom. For many months now they have been receiving from Him the instructions needed to constitute them worthy ambassadors, real representatives of His heavenly Kingdom.

They each had one disqualification. They were human, and that fact made them subject to mistakes, jealousies, selfishness, dullness of understanding, tenacious of opinions agreed with their ally if those opinions agreed with their desires. "Opinions," one somewhere said, "rule the world." And another said, "An opinion is a stake driven down where someone got tired of thinking." These men had come to Jesus with a lot of opinions already formed and at work, guiding them, perhaps unconsciously, in all their thinking and living. These opinions had come to these men from various and sundry sources. Some of them had come with them from childhood, no doubt, had been taken in with mother's milk, some from the conversation of their elders; some had come out of the synagogue services of the Sabbath.

It is likely that these opinions were in accord with what these men wanted. For instance, they wanted an earthly kingdom wherein they might each hold a position of high authority. And, in spite of all that the Master had taught them through the many months they had been with Him and had been listening to Him, they still believed what they had for so long believed: That the Christ was to inaugurate this earthly kingdom where His more prominent subjects would have places of exalted rank and where His armies would go out to conquer a world for Him, to conquer all other kings and kingdoms and reduce them all to subjection by force.

In this campaign of conquest, these men assembled on Mount Olivet, expected, each of them, to have conspicuous part, and expected, each one, to win high honor and lofty station.

III. THEIR QUALIFICATIONS

They no doubt thought their necessary qualifications to be different from what they really were. They were acquainted with the traditions of the fathers and had become confident that, with perhaps a bit of coaching from Him, they were able to hold any position to which they might be able to persuade Him to give appointment. But their case was far otherwise. They needed His constant presence to make them equal to the work, His constant guidance, His constant constraint, and no less constant restraint.

So He had bade them wait till such time as the Grand Master should see

REV. N. H. SMITH

Shown above is Rev. N. H. Smith who was recently ordained to the ministry by the Providence Church, Hattiesburg. Rev. J. L. Morgan, Meridian, brought the charge to the church; Rev. J. F. Parker, pastor, brought the sermon; and G. R. Robinson, chairman of the deacons, presented the Bible.

THE SUMMER TERM BEGAN AT Mississippi College with registration May 11 and classes, May 12. The second summer term will be July 16-August 16.

fit to send One to be their helper in their tremendous work. The Father had promised them power for their great work, a work so great they might not hope to accomplish it in their own puny strength.

IV. THEIR COMMISSION, THAT IS, THEIR WORK

Now they thought they were to know the councils of the Almighty as to the when and the what and the how of every event wrapped in secrecy from the eyes of ordinary men.

Now they were to begin to exercise their hoped-for authority in the Messianic Kingdom. But see now how the Master gives answer to their all too worldly conception as made plain in their question, "Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" He knew the thought that dictated this question, and so He answered them fittingly.

1. The knowledge of times when I am coming back to do this or that, is not your business. You are not, at least, to be wall-flowers in a kingdom. You are not to be given an easy job by the king for whom you look. He is exacting in His demands. And His demands, His decree, His commission for you is this: Stay here till God prepares you for your task. You can make it easy for both of you if you do that, nor shirk your work.

And what is the work then in purpose for us? Not that we should be part of the mere ornamental features of the kingdom. "Ye shall be witnesses unto Me." (I find it difficult to forget that the word here translated "witnesses" is our word "myrtars"). You are to spread the name and fame and power to save of Jesus everywhere you go, and you are to go everywhere. At home first, of course, in the home, then the home-town, then the home state, then the home nation, then all of the homes in all the world, in lands that bound and dot the ocean as far as oen bears his foam.

The task commanded is an impossible task as far as man is able to accomplish it alone. It is only by the help of someone greater than we that we can ever so much as hope for successful accomplishment.

SCOTT ASSOCIATION HOLDS MUSIC WEEK

The Scott Association held a Music Emphasis Week in Forest Church on May 28-June 1. W. C. Morgan led the class teaching, which was held from 7:30 to 9:15 p. m. each evening. The book taught was "Practical Music Lessons" by Harrison and McKinney.

The enrolment for the week passed the 150 mark, with 12 churches represented. The association was entertained by the Forest Church.

Bro. Roy Self, Associational Missionary in Scott County led out in the promotion of the week of music. The work of Bro. Self in this promotion was outstanding, and all of his recommendations for the future were adopted relative to the music program.

On Friday night, June 1, a County-Wide Hymn Sing was held in the Forest Church. A fine attendance, and much interest in the program, made the evening interesting to all. Congregational singing was led by different song leaders present, and the girls' ensemble from Harpersville Church presented a special number. The ensemble plans to enter the District Music Festival which will be held in the Forest Church during June.

The Executive Committee of the association met at 6:30 p. m. Friday to make plans for the Scott County Music Association. During the evening program a short business session was held. At this time the Executive Committee presented several recommendations, and all were adopted. The Constitution and By-Laws were adopted, which were recommended by the Music Department of the Convention Board. The following officers were elected: Moody Purvis, Associational Director; Spurgeon Cooper, Associate Director; Mrs. Stanley Peckham, Secretary-Treasurer.

The association was divided into four zones, and the Associational Hymn Sing will be held in each zone consecutively, and on the fifth month a mass Hymn Sing will be held with all four zones cooperating jointly.

LAMAR HOLDS HYMN SING

The Lamar County Music Association recently met with the Greenville Baptist Church for a very enjoyable Hymn Sing. There were some 250 present with seven out of eight churches in the association participating in the singing. This attendance was much better than that of the last meeting.

The program consisted of solos, quartets and congregational singing. The people of this association see in the work many useful and practical helps for a better music program. Bro. Frank Aultman is the Lamar County Associational Director.

Rev. A. A. Ward, for the past four years pastor of the Centreville Church, has resigned to accept the Port Gibson Church. He assumes his duties at Port Gibson June 20.

During his nearly four years at Centreville the church has completed and paid for a beautiful educational annex; bought and paid for four pianos, a folding organ, a Hammond Organ, and other equipment. A Brotherhood has been organized; a Church Library established; and $11,500 has been given to missions.

Mr. Ward served as associational chairman in the Evangelistic Crusade.

One young man has surrendered to the ministry and has been ordained. Two young women have surrendered to full-time Christian service.

Mississippian Named Bethel College Head

Dr. W. Edwin Richardson, formerly of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, has been elected to be president of Bethel Woman's College, Hopkinsville, Kentucky, a fully accredited Baptist junior college founded in 1854.

Dr. Richardson will come to Bethel from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tennessee, where for two years he has been president.

Originally from Mt. Olive, Dr. Richardson grew up in Hattiesburg. He is a graduate of Hattiesburg High School, Mississippi College, and a Ph. D. graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Dr. Richardson has taught school in Mississippi, Louisiana, and Kentucky. He has had pastorates in Kentucky and Tennessee and is the Tennessee member of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Richardson, the former Elizabeth Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Ferguson of Learned, Mississippi, is an alumnae of Belhaven College, Jackson, Mississippi. They have two teenage daughters.

HOME PROGRAM FEATURES LEE AND HAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—(BP)—The East, the West and the Midsouth will meet on the platform of San Francisco's Civic Auditorium for a Christian Home Service on Sunday afternoon, June 24, according to Joe W. Burton who will be in charge of this session of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. R. G. Lee, from the Midsouth, will speak on a theme dear to his heart at that hour. The convention president has always majored on the home in his ministry. His subject at the Christian Home Service will be "Ramparts of Righteousness."

Also on the program will be the family of Toxey T. Fortinberry, members of Dr. Lee's church in Memphis. This family is featured in the June Home Life.

The East will be represented by Brooks Hays, an Arkansas congressman serving in the nation's capitol, who will give a report on "Southern Baptists and Their Home Ministry."

The West will be represented with a 200-voice San Francisco choir, conducted by Wilbur F. Martin, Golden Gate Seminary.

Alcohol Problems And Some Remedies

By MRS. R. L. EZELLE
Mississippi W.C.T.U. President

The first "reason why" there are alcoholic problems lies in the centuries old custom of the beverage use of anesthetic drug. The use in social situations of an anesthetic drug that affects judgement, reason, self-criticism, and muscular skills has created problems in all ages, but in a machine and scientific age these problems become acute because of the greater need for skill and accuracy. Automobiles, trains, and airplanes are telescoping time and distances; decisions and actions must be made in split seconds, not minutes.

A further complicating factor in alcohol problems is the ceaseless cultivation and promotion of the beverage use of alcohol by great business interests through all the arts of modern advertising and political pressure.

It is estimated that the various liquor manufacturers last year spent more than $150 million impressing the American people with the value of their beverage. Never a word of warning that these drinks contain from 4% to 50% of an injurious drug. Does advertising pay? Well, the number of alcoholics is said to have increased in nine years from 650,000 to 950,000 although during this same time around 12,000 alcoholics have died each year.

Listen to these statements by the brewers themselves and their friends during and following World War II.

In May 1946 a Brewing Company advertised: "Beer has come into its own and more people have an appetite for beer today since the war because our recruits were furnished with plenty of beer."

In 1941 there appeared in the Brewer's Digest this statement: "One of the finest things that could have happened to the brewing industry was the insistence by high ranking Army officers to make beer available at army camps—Here's a chance to cultivate a taste for beer in millions of young men who will eventually constitute the largest beer-consuming section of our population."

Uncle Sam A Sales Manager

Said an advertising man to the Wholesale Beer Association of Ohio February

Shown above is Rev. N. J. Lee, pastor of Lyman Church, baptizing William Nicholas (82) in Little Biloxi Creek. Assisting Mr. Lee are Deacons L. L. Smith and Woodrow Wilson. There were eight others baptized at the time Mr. Nicholas was baptized.

7, 1947; "For five years there has been no need to 'sell.' Uncle Sam has been your sales manager and the best you have ever had."

Then consider these results: During the war in the Pacific, soldiers sometimes desperate for ammunition had to see a cargo of beer unloaded instead. Soldiers who did not like beer often found it the only cold drink available. Shipping space, so desperately needed for military supplies, would be taken up by carloads of beer.

Doctors tell us venereal disease, tuberculosis, pneumonia are much more likely to be contracted by men and women who drink than by those who don't. The chief of the Psycho-Neurotic Service of the Veteran's Administration said that 10% of all World War II patients discharged from V. A. hospitals in 1947, entered with a primary diagnosis of alcoholism, and 2/3 of that 10% were pure, uncomplicated alcoholism.

It is against the law to sell liquor to a minor, yet beer is the most important thing we can send our young soldiers, fighting for their lives and our safety! A plea for their protection from a habit-forming drug by women who love them, is ridiculed and resented, through brewer sponsored propaganda.

The W.C.T.U. wants the boys who leave home at the risk of health, and life itself, in the service of their country, to have the full use of all their mental and physical skills for the better protection of themselves and their comrades. We call on the people of Mississippi to send up an avalanche of appeals to General Bradley or to our congressmen to see that soft drinks, canned fruit juices, canned water, and fresh milk be supplied with as great enthusiasm and publicity as canned beer.

In Sweden army officers are required to know and teach the effects of alcohol. Why should not a similar program be carried on in our armed services? Why should not liquor be prohibited, instead of encouraged?

If the Christian people of America do not wake up and fight for decent conditions in their own communities, Mr. Stalin and the Communists may have easy traveling in this country a few years hence.

Begin Fight In Churches

Just here the Woman's Christian Temperance Union holds a special responsibility. This fight for good citizenship must begin in the churches. We have literature that teachers, pastors, parents and public officials need and would use. We should be specialists in this field, able to give reasons and facts not merely opinions and prejudices. People must see, not us, but the reasons why the cost of alcohol to those who do not drink—to the merchant, the doctor, the employer, the tax-payer, the public, and to those who do drink and to their families.

We now have awakening programs of alcohol-education in the churches and in that largest citizens organizations in the state—the P.T.A. We have an interdenominational Church Council for Alcohol Education, Alcoholics Anonymous, Committees on Alcoholism, the State Department of Education with a definite teacher training program in alcohol education, and the United Drays.

Of all these, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the only one having a paid membership pledged to total abstinence, and specializing in a broad departmental program of education and service aimed at prevention of alcoholism and the development of Christian citizens.

Solutions to Alcohol problems lie in knowledge, in Christian character, in protective laws, in right methods to attain these ends; in community activity for clean recreation, the elimination of harmful conditions through co-operation of inter-denominational and organizational leadership. Our part is to lend a helping hand and to stimulate thought and action.

REV. D. W. MOULDER, FORMER pastor of Lorena Church, Smith County, reported that on June 3 he baptized ten people who came during the recent revival.
